Kestrels Before and After School Club

Q. What do you call a sleepy Easter egg?

A. Eggs-austed

Mrs Tempest

The Kestrels children have been very busy making lots of different crafts for Easter. We used a template of an egg and made some very cute chicks to go in each egg. There were some fabulous pictures of Easter eggs using grid lines to help and the children had fun using tissue paper to colour them with all different designs. Word searches and puzzles have been as popular as ever and the children have continued making their fantastic structures of Lego.

150 years celebrations

As you will be aware this year the school is celebrating its 150 years anniversary.

For the remainder of this academic year there are a host of different events scheduled to celebrate this event and this includes planting a Flowering Cherry Blossom in the school grounds. This 1.5m blossom tree was kindly donated to school by Swincar Nurseries we have also got three Flamingo trees which will also be potted and placed at the front of school. The owner of Swincar is an ex-Chair of Governors of Hawksworth and his four children all attended the school.

The tree will be planted by the children this term adjacent to the hedge of the reflective area.

Enterprise Challenge

As part of their present topic Class 4 have been hard at work making their business dreams come true. Each group has created their own company name, chosen their stock, created packaging, completed a business plan and have worked on their sales patter. Well done Class 4.

This team sold a lot of sweets today (Zach is seen testing sweets to see if they are ready to sell).

Two customers checking out Alfie and Kingsley's sweet stock.

Easter Service

It was great to see so many parents, grandparents and governors at this morning's Easter Service. The children performed with their usual aplomb and their confidence shone through. For those who had lines to say it was very pleasing to see so many had learnt their words off by heart and were word perfect. Thank you to Father David for attending and giving thanks and praise to the children for their performance.
